Fulton Industrial Development Highlights

Fulton offers highly flexible and cost-effective industrial land along a major commercial transportation route identified by the Municipality as a strategic growth corridor.

Significantly Lower Taxes

No business tax and 50% lower property tax rate than Calgary

Urban Development Standards

Wide curbed roads, fibre optic communications, underground storm water collection and more.

Cheaper Utilities

No municipal taxes on electricity or gas bills lowers utility costs by at least 11%

Proximity to Work Force

10-minutes from the rapidly growing residential communities of SE Calgary (Mahogany, Hotchkiss, Rangeview, Copperfield, Auburn Bay, Seton, etc.)

Key Transportation Route

Located 8 minutes from the Stoney Trail Ring Road along the Hwy 22x corridor at the CP Rail main line crossing. Hwy 22x is the southern bypass route to Hwy 1

Flexible Industrial Zoning

I-HVY zoning allows for the broadest range of industrial land uses and no building commitment

Flexible Lot Sizing

Customizable lot sizes can accommodate large format projects

Save up to 50% in upfront & Operating Costs

Along with Lower land prices, property tax rates and utility costs can save up to 50% in annual operating costs compared to an identical facility in the City

Strategic Highway 22X Corridor Location

Positioned on a primary east/west commercial shipping corridor through Calgary, Fulton's location offers a number of strategic and operational benefits:

- ▶ 8 minutes from Stoney Trail Ring Road
- ▶ Easy access to Alberta High Load Corridor
- ▶ 15 minutes from CP Rail Intermodal facilities
- ▶ Multiple paved connections to Calgary with no seasonal road bans

The TransCanada Highway 1 route east of Calgary aligns with Hwy 22x. Upon completion of the final portion of the Stoney Trail Ring Road, the Hwy 22x corridor will become the shortest and fastest east/west connecting route for Hwy 1 shipping through Calgary.
